

Volunteer Role Profile: Site Tour Guide

Purpose of Role	To give a tour of the site contained within the Historic Trail of the museum; including Pit View as requested
Anticipated Time Contribution	Regular or one off commitment is welcome
Main Activities or Duties	Tours are provided by volunteer guides to a range of groups including school parties and groups of older people. The museum aims to provide one tour for visitors a day during the peak season
Requirements and Competencies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Need to be able to deliver the main points of a standardised tour for visitors • Able to manage the answer to questions including being able to pass questions on for volunteer researchers to respond to • Friendly and approachable • Reliable
Training	From the museum staff as appropriate and from existing volunteer tour guides. All new guides would be able to shadow guided tours and have support from an experienced guide for the first tours given.
Benefits	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Volunteers who are available for 6 hours in the day are provided with a free lunch from a limited menu in the on-site café • Free refreshments at break times • Uniform (Wheal Martyn polo shirt provided) • 10% discount on selected items in shop
Notes

For more information contact:

Sue Ford, Museum Manager tel: 01726 850362; email: whealmartyn@swlakestrust.org.uk

Updated 2/4/16