

Planning and Booking Your Wheal Martyn Visit

We offer a range of curriculum linked workshops across the age range for Reception to Key Stage 4 classes, all offering excellent Outdoor Learning opportunities.

We can plan a visit to meet your topic learning outcomes - just email or call to discuss your ideas. Here are just a few examples of our Workshops:

Sounding Off	Moving Parts	Mapping My Heritage
Explore the science of sound, sound safari, poetry & STEM challenges	Investigate the water-wheel through a STEM challenge	Map the local area from the 1700's, with influential characters from the past
Working Life for Me	Rocks and Soils	Nature Detectives
Role play & drama with museum artefacts, looking at Victorian clay workers & local history	Investigating rock types & uses through scientific enquiry, art and poetry	A sensory exploration of woodland nature through STEM & creative activities
Creative writing, music, dance and art projects.....
We offer engaging projects with our partners, KEAP Kernow Education Arts Partnership, CMEH Cornwall Music Education Hub, SpinDrift Dance Collective and Shallal Dance. New opportunities will be available over the academic year. Keep watching!
